Appleby promotes nine in 2017 promotions round

27 March | 2017

Appleby has announced the promotion of two partners and the appointment of seven lawyers to the position of Counsel

Leading offshore law firm Appleby has announced nine promotions across its Bermuda, Cayman, Hong Kong and Isle of Man offices. All promotions are effective 1 April 2017, save for Sebastian Said who was promoted in January.

Appleby Group Managing Partner, Michael O'Connell said: "These appointments reflect our ambitious growth plans as an independent law firm. All promotions are thoroughly deserved and I am delighted to be congratulating all of my colleagues on their progression and development within the firm. They are extremely talented lawyers who have been strong advocates of the firm's commitment to providing and maintaining a first-class level of service to our clients."

Appleby's new appointments include team members from the Corporate, Dispute Resolution and Private Client & Trusts departments, as well as one appointment made within Appleby's Knowledge Management team.
