STEVENHILLS LTD

Appleby Mauritius successfully represented Stevenhills Ltd, the largest bookmaker conducting fixed odd betting in Mauritius with a yearly turnover of around USD25m, after having been found guilty of a regulatory breach under the Gambling Regulatory Authority Act 2007 at first instance. We appeared before the Supreme Court (Appellate Jurisdiction), in an appeal against the decision of the Court at first instance. In a judgment delivered by two Judges of the Supreme Court on 1 June 2020, it was held that there was a "fundamental flaw in the information together with the irrelevant and misleading particulars" which has "caused prejudice to the accused." The conviction and sentence was effectively quashed and the appeal allowed.

Subsequently, the Trustee moved to withdraw the application and one of the parties objected to the withdrawal on the ground that given by that Trustee had surrendered its discretion to the Court, it would be against the public order to allow the Trustee to withdraw its application once the court was seized. In a Ruling delivered by the Supreme Court on the 15th December 2020, the said objection was set aside with costs. This decision is important as it was the first time that the Supreme Court had to rule on such an objection in the context of a trust matter.

Application for Arrest of Ship done through remote communication with Court during lockdown and participation of the aircraft of the National Coast Guard to pursue the vessel to effect arrest. The dispute concerns Waterfront One Ltd and Grace Bulk LLC (Grace) refusing to return to Riya Shipping Corporation (Riya), its deposit following the failure of the sale of the Vessel MV ABML Grace to Riya. Riya has triggered Arbitration Proceedings in the United Kingdom for the return of its deposit and in order to secure its claim in the London arbitration against Grace, Appleby was instructed to apply for the arrest of vessel, the only asset owned by Grace. The Vessel was expected to stop over in Mauritius on the 5th May and finally reached Mauritius on the 7th May 2020 in the morning. The Commercial Division of the Supreme Court granted an order authorising the 'saisie conservatoire' of vessel MV ABML Grace and directed the Port Master and the Ministry of Blue Economy, Marine Resources, Fisheries and Shipping to withhold permission for the aforesaid vessel to leave Port Louis Harbour. The participation of the aircraft of the National Coast Guard of Mauritius was sought during the arrest of the vessel.
